INTRODUCTION

We, the seniors of 1954 wish to present to you a review of a play. A play that we believe deserves both recording and recalling. We have named it the CAVALCADE. The setting centers around the numerous activities of the past year at Lincoln.

The play we present here is one without beginning and likewise, one without ending. This is because our CAVALCADE is one of personalities.....personalities unlimited, that we believe are very different and yet each one represents a potential of success. The personalities cannot be described fully in the CAVALCADE but we hope that the sketches given here will provide you with much pleasure now, and that they will bring back many pleasant memories in the years to come.

If you are a student we hope you realize the significance of the part you are playing. Be it large or small, each of you is a valuable link in a chain that stretches toward the horizon of success. This horizon represents a goal that we all hope to attain. It will be reached by, faith, perseverance, high standards and understanding.

If you are a parent or an interested outsider we hope that you will also realize as we have, that this year at Lincoln has been a very successful one and that we are well on our way to that horizon of success.

The stage has been set, the background is in place, we, the characters are prepared.....and now the play.

The Seniors

DEDICATION

Every now and then you meet someone with a special touch of greatness; it may be an extraordinary talent or it may be a superb touch of greatness that deserves recognition, and we the last graduating class of Lincoln wish to call special attention to this greatness. It is with this in mind that we, the Seniors of 1954, proudly dedicate our CAVALCADE to Lincoln High.

History of Lincoln High School

LINCOLN HIGH SCHOOL
1910-1926

Lincoln High, one of the four high schools in Loudoun County, was organized in 1904, classes being held at the Lincoln Grade School until a high school building was constructed in 1910. The friend's Meeting organized the school, and when it was completed the grade school also moved into the building, there being only 19 students and 2 teachers at the high school. All students paid a small tuition fee except the children of the contributors to the building. In 1926 the school burned completely down and in various places in the town of Lincoln classes were held, until the county constructed a new building, the one we now use.

From the 19 attending high school in 1910, to the nearly 250 students attending now, in 1954, there have been many graduates. This year's graduating class of 39 represents the last graduating class of Lincoln. The new consolidated Loudoun County High School is scheduled for completion this year and students of Lincoln will attend the new school. The high school building will be used as a grade school.

Now comes the final act of our dramatic production.

We realize that we want this year to be our best.....

"The first four acts already past, a fifth shall close the drama with the day: Time's noblest offspring is the last."

Senior Class Officers

Bill Thomas President
Betty Jane Hall Vice-President
Betty Ann Martz Secretary
Jean Anderson Treasurer

Leading us to our final curtain call here, are our able class officers. Under their leadership we have proved ourselves a cast well deserving many encores.

History Of Senior Class

1950 - '51

In the year of '50-51, we arrived at Lincoln from Round Hill, Hamilton and Purcellville. Initiations, hard lessons and new types of activities were taken in our stride. Leadership began to bud.

1951 - '52

Early in 1951 Betty Ann Martz was chosen to be our president. Under her leadership we lost our freshmen timidity. Members of the class were elected as officers in the various clubs in the school.

1952 - '53

In the fall of '52 we entered Lincoln determined to break all records. We asserted ourselves and members were elected to fill positions of trust not only in the school but in different county organizations. We raised money for the Senior Prom. It was a honey. Yes, our rings came; that was a proud moment. Lynn Adams as president did more than his share in making this a glorious year.

1953 - '54

With a firm determination to get our sheep skins, 39 of us enrolled in old L. H. S., because our class was to be the last to finish at our old school, we set our goals high. In record time money for our annual was collected. Our class was well represented on the Lincolnite, the S. C. A., Beta Club, Keen Teen Club, also the athletic Teams. Knowing that through union comes strength, we took pride in standing together on all the events and questions. Bill Thomas was president. Our last wish for the members is that they will always remember the fine things they have been taught at Lincoln High.

CONTEE LYNN ADAMS

Lynn is the slow,
Easy-going young blade
With his dry wit,
Many friends he has made.

PROPHECY

As a theatrical performance is no better than its players, so, also, the life of a country is no greater than its citizens, We, the seniors of 1954, feel that in our performances thus far, we are representative of the best in American youth, and we feel that our futures hold a brightness, the beams of which will be traced back to a strong and true stage light, that of our lives here at Lincoln.

It is quite possible that in the years to come, such headlines as the following will be seen in the nation's newspapers.

Lynn Adams, alias Patrick Henry Adams, was elected President of the Senate. Mr. Adams is a well known-orator through out the United States.

The most prosperous bus lines in the country today, "The 25 Bus Lines" is owned and operated by Mr. William Carbaugh of Bluemont.

Elmer Carter, head of The Cattleman's Association of Virginia, has recently returned to his estate near Round Hill.

A prominent farmer in Loudoun is Robert Clark, who recently purchased a prize winning herd of livestock for his dairy.

That big new building in Leesburg houses the office of Richard Cummings, the prominent insurance representative and stock broker.

Robert Florance, the red-headed singing sensation, has just reached his greatest ambition. His new record, "Rye Whiskey" sold one million copies and Robert was able to buy a 1964 Buick.

Mr. Robert Jones, renouned comedian, has just presented his new show on TV: "Boogie Jones and a Few Wiggles."

Did you hear about that record breaking cross-country jaunt by Tommy Presgraves. That new motorcycle of his must be the best.

Linwood Reid and Billy Lanham are playing football this year for the Washington Yellowskins. The Boys haven't won a game yet, but they say they intend to keep kicking.

Paul Rodgers and Donald Dawson, wealthy farmers in Loudoun, have recently had a completely new and modern dairy constructed on their estate near Lovettsville. The Payne Construction Co., owned by Bobby Payne, did a magnificent job.

Poston's Plumbing and Heating, owned by Mr. Fenton Poston recently opened a new office in Leesburg. Miss Barbara Hurst is his most efficient secretary and bookkeeper.

Democrat Mr. William Thomas has just been elected Governor of Virginia. Thomas has long been a member of the Byrd machine.

Admiral David Tribby has just returned to this country, having completed his job as Commander-in-Chief of the North Atlantic Fleet.

Entering her second term as President of Mary Washington College is Miss Jean Anderson. She was Dean of Women and organized the program that makes the school co-educational. Her alterations to the school have made it the best college in the state.

The Loudoun County High School has a new Home Ec Teacher, Sarah Boxley and we hear she is an expert in that field.

Mary Frances and Mary Louise Brown have opened a new dress shop in Washington. This new division of Brown and Brown is to be managed by Mrs. Barbara Payne, the former Miss Barbara Greer.

The guest star on "Music and Mirth With Molly," will be Rachael James, who is known to be the best since Imogene Coco. The program is MC'ed by Molly Downs, the former school teacher who made good on TV.

Anna Mae Fowler and Ruth Orth, co-superintendents of nursing at New York City Hospital have been vacationing here in Loudoun for two weeks.

Miss Nancy Graham, famed rider and trainer of horses recently returned to her home near Purcellville, after a world tour with several of her famous show horses.

Phyllis Geiman, entertained a short time ago another of her famous dinner parties. She was recently voted the number one hostess in America.

Betty Jane Hall has opened another in her chain of funeral parlors which are located in all the major cities of the country.

Miss Bonne Sue Hall has just returned to Loudoun After the closing of her latest Broadway play.

The star of the All American girls basketball team is none other than our own Mary Anne Locke.

Miss America of 1964, Miss Dolly Manuel, is touring the U.S. on her tour she will make a short stopover in her old home town, Bluemont.

Miss Betty Anne Martz is modeling for the Powers Modeling Agency in New York. She has just returned from Paris where she modeled the latest creations of that famed designer, Miss Mary Alice Windle.

Betty Poston has just returned to Duke University where she heads the Mathematics Department.

Miss Ruby Schooley and Miss Jessie Walters have positions with the U. S. Government in Washington.

Miss Jean Wynkoop has recently married into the Wrigley family. She met Mr. Philip Wrigley IV, after she won a $50,000 contest sponsored by the chewing gum people.

Last Will and Testament

We the members of the cast of the play of 1954 hold our positions by virtue of the honor bestowed upon us by our director Mr. Simpson. He having first been given the opportunity in the past four years and having decided and declared us to be of sound mind, we declare this to be our last will and testament and by these presents we do hereby devise and bequeath as follows:

Lynn Adams - leaves his indolent attitude to Eddie Hutchison.

Jean Anderson - leaves her cheerleading outfit to Margaret Jenkins.

Sarah Boxley - leaves her fingernails to someone with quiet nerves.

Mary Frances Brown - leaves her tranquility to Rachel Rose.

Mary Louise Brown - leaves her ability to carry on a conversation to Betty Kent.

Billy Carbaugh - leaves his schoolbus to Jim Neal.

Elemer Carter - leaves his handwriting to Ann Hansbarger.

Robert Clark - leaves his false teeth to the future football team.

Richard Cummings - leaves his fondness of girls to Shirley Hough.

Rozzell Davis - leaves his hard earned mustache to Sonny Dickens.

Molly Downs - leaves Scotty to Pat but with a rain check.

Donald Dawson - leaves his curly hair to Bobby Arnold.

Robert Florance - leaves his athletic ability to Jack Thomas.

Anna Mae Fowler - leaves her physics book to an intelligent person.

Phyllis Geiman - leaves her dancing ability to the 8th graders and freshmen.

Nancy Graham - leaves a trip to Florida to Mr. Simpson.

Barbara Greer - leaves her clean blackboards to a competent junior.

Betty Jane Hall - leaves her ability to graduate in 3 years to Jimmy Simpson.

Bonnie Sue Hall - leaves her vitality and effervescence to Sue Litton.

Barbara Hurst - leaves her quiet but amirable personality to Diana Queery.

Bachel James - leaves her trips to prep school dances to Juanita Ramsbottom.

Bobby Jones - leaves his flirty eyes to Bubby Hall.

Billy Lanham - leaves his English to Johnny Harold.

Mary Anne Locke - leaves her basketball ability to Ann Cole.

Dolly Manuel - leaves her attractive red hair to Nancy Simpson.

Betty Anne Martz - leaves her carefree manner to Ann Townshend.

Ruth Orth - leaves her temper to Ann Hansbarger.

Bobby Payne - leaves his perserverance to Phillip Brownrigg.

Betty Poston - leaves her argumentative ability to future solid geometry class.

Thomas Presgraves - leaves his motorcycle to Jane Norman.

Linwood Reid - leaves his height to Buddy Brown.

Paul Rodgers - leaves his scientific mind to the future Physics class.

Ruby Schooley - leaves her cooking ability to the Home Economic Girls.

Bill Thomas - leaves his big brother's Science Manuals to future science classes.

David Tribby - leaves his baritone voice to Jack Grubb.

Jessie Walters - leaves her pretty blond hair to Sylvia Miller.

Mary Alice Windle - leaves her studious ways to Benson Lightner.

Jean Wynkoop - leaves her rosy cheeks to Sandra Anderson.

In witness whereof we hereby afix our seal this 4th of June in the year of our Lord 1954.

In awe we stand assembled as the curtains slowly part;
With optimistic hopefulness
we wish the play to start.
The casting and direction,
begun twelve long years ago,
Will soon reflect, in stage success, our place in life's great share.
Was it a few short days ere now,
we stepped within this door?
Oh, that we could but linger
a nostalgic moment more.
But dreams are calling, beckoning us; and lo the lights do fade,
So we embark upon the stage to greet the plans He's laid.

Mary Alice Windle

Dress rehearsal before the curtain goes up on our senior year! It will take careful preparation to make that year all that it should be. Colesworthy phrased our position well when he said: "Ah, soon upon the stage of life, sweet happy children, you will rise."

EIGHTH GRADERS

What is this strange and glorious place called high school ?
We enter Act I not yet entirely convinced where it will take us.
Tennyson advises us to "Be patient, our playwright may yet show us in some fifth act what this wild drama means."

ORGANIZATIONS

"The stage might be made a perpetual source of the most noble and useful entertainments." (Addison)

How could the purpose of our organizations be stated more poetically?

CAVALCADE STAFF

SITTING: Nancy Graham, Phyllis Geiman, Betty Poston, David Tribby, Robert Jones, Lynn Adams, Jessie Walters, Billy Carbaugh. STANDING: Betty Ann Martz, Dolly Manuel, Robert Clark, Mary Alice Windle, Rachael James, Molly Downs, Miss Whitman, Mrs. Whitley, Richard Cummings, Paul Lee Rogers, Linwood Reid.

Anyone who knows anything about the theatrical business knows that for a play to succeed it is necessary for each person, whether he is the director, an actor, designer, or stage hand, to do his part for the play to be a success.

Likewise, it is just as important for the CAVALCADE STAFF to work as a team, all pulling toward one goal, and that is to make this year's annual a success.

I believe I can say for the whole staff that we have come closer to realizing what big dividends teamwork can pay.

LINCOLNITE STAFF

Nancy Graham, Jean Anderson, Betty Ann Martz, Bill Thomas, Elizabeth Williams, Molly Downs, Betty Poston, David Tribby, Miss Bridges, Betty Jane Hall, Ralph Windle, Jane Norman, Ann Hansbarger, Molly Fox, Mary Alice Windle. Absent when the picture was made: Lynn Adams.

Our newspaper, the Lincolnite, is published monthly. It brings to light all the activities in which the students are their own actors and audience.

Each person on the staff puts forth an effort to make the paper an interesting and informative publication.

Under the direction of Miss Katherine Bridges, the news has been gathered and completed in nine acts.

As the curtain closes on another year, we are happy that our Lincolnite has been a success.

LIBRARY STAFF

OFFICE STAFF

GLEE CLUB

The Lincoln Chapter of The Future Farmers of America is an active group of young men who hope someday to become successful farmers.

Among their many yearly activities, is having a father and son banquet in honor of their fathers. At this banquet they have a guest speaker. Other activities are, giving a Christmas box to a needy family each year, and cooperating with the school on various school projects. Also each year we take a educational trip. In the past years we have gone to the Pennsylvania State Fair at Harrisburg, Pennsylvania and to the National Fair at Beltsville, Maryland.

Judging by the Lincoln Chapter, Loudoun need not worry about the quality of its future farms.

The members of the Keen Teen Club are known as the party givers who entertain the cast at the end of a day's work. This club holds several formal dances yearly featuring well known orchestras. It is sponsored by Mrs. A. C. Echols and Mrs. Charles James.

LANGUAGE CLUB OFFICERS

LANGUAGE CLUB

The Language Club of Lincoln High School was established to create interest in the study of language and to show that "language can be fun."

Those who have taken and passed a language in previous years are honorary members and have all the privileges except that of voting and holding office. No dues are required.

S. C. A. OFFICERS

The organization that is most representative of our student body here at Lincoln is the Student Cooperative Association or S. C. A. There is almost one-hundred per cent membership from the student body in this hard working organization.

Many interesting and educational programs are sponsored by the S. C. A., and through it's various committees school improvement is carried out.

Our S. C. A. is truly an example of democracy at work; for many have been the debates, speeches, and finally voting on various school and organization matters.

P. T. A.

To call the members of the Lincoln High School P. T. A. the stage hands of our production would be most uncomplimentary, and yet they are constantly behind the scenes guiding our production and helping us to achieve perfection that would be otherwise impossible. On this page are two photographs that illustrate two of their projects and prove beyond question that the P. T. A. is indispensable.

SPORTS

"A stage where every man must play his part." Shakespeare. This statement has in it the very essence of teamwork. It suggests the high quality of sportsmanship that is to be found in our various teams this year, and serves as a challenge to all future teams to keep that standard high.

LINCOLN LIONS

Throughout the entire basketball season, the Lincoln Lions have practiced diligently. They are to be commended upon the fighting spirit which they have exhibited. Although the records may not appear to be favorable, yet it cannot be denied that the Lions have had a very worthwhile year.

In the second year of T-Formation, the Lincoln Lions showed some improvement and with the help of coach, Mr. Donald Linn, they did their best to make it a season to long be remembered.

Though the team didn't have many victories the opponents always knew they were on the field.

The Lincoln Lionesses had a very successful season. With the excellent coaching of Mr. Guilford Welsh, the girls placed second in their own league and therefore went to the tournament at Manassas High School, Manassas, Va. They played and defeated Nokesville but they were defeated by Lovettsville the next night and therefore placed second in the district, bringing home a beautiful trophy.

CHEERLEADERS

Jean Anderson
Molly Downs, Betty Poston, Betty Ann Martz,
Carolyn Hindman, Diana Querry, Conne Sipe, Sally Ingersoll,

You'll probably never hear this cheer from this peppy eight but it is they who keep the school spirit up before and during the game; winning or losing they're in there pitching.

School grounds and building alike ring with their practicing and their whole hearted support has helped win many a game.

Betty Poston, leads the ranks with four years as a cheerleader. Connie Sipe, who has transferred, was entering her third year. Molly Downs, and Jean Anderson boast two years of service and Betty Ann Martz, Carolyn Hindman, Diana Query, Sally Ingersoll and Bonnie Sue Hall, who replaced Connie, donned their maroon and white outfits for the first time this year.

ADS

A play without an audience is purposeless: Likewise, without readers and interested supporters, our yearbook would lose its meaning. Possibly, most of our readers will be students who actively participate in the drama, yet "though the most be players, yet some must be spectators. "And to you we are most grateful.

-Johnson

STEPS TO SUCCESS

Builders of success---What spurs to ambition are contained in the stories of their struggles. A Soap salesman saved $32 and opened a brokerage office. He wanted no time envying capitalists; he determined to be one. Becoming interested in a gum shipment he decided to manufacture chewing gum. Today people of many nations are customers of William Wrigley.

A train newsdealer, despite deafness, decided to travel the high road to success as an inventor. He set his goals and struggled through thousands of experiments, investing most of his earnings in the business. Many conveniences remind us of the success of Thomas Edison.

See Carnegie, grimy with coal dust, running a cellar steam engine at $2 a week. See him as a telegraph messenger, later as an operator, saving as he went along. He ignored short cuts to wealth. He co-operated with his banker and was not above taking advice. And all America came to know and respect Andrew Carnegie.

It is encouraging to study the steps by which typical Americans climb through obscurity and difficulty to success. It is still more encouraging to feel yourself climbing---drawing away from the crowd.

Plant your feet firmly on your first step to success---your Bank Account. This is your logical start to the higher steps---Character, Determination, Economy, Industry, Square Dealing, Planning, Enthusiasm. Think ! Leave the crowd, strike your strike, save---and win. Yes, you can achieve success. Aim high---and try.

IN APPRECIATION

We of the 1954 Senior Class of Lincoln High School wish to extend sincerest thanks to the coproducers-directors of our play, Mrs. Whitley and Miss Whitman. We realize that without their aid the Cavalcade could not have been published. In the direction and production we found Mrs. Whitley's help with the pictures and ads, and Miss Whitman's assistance with the art work and written material, very efficient - and essential.

The wonderful pictures contained in our yearbook are the result of the combined efforts of the Lemley Studios, and we should like to take this opportunity to thank them, too.

To the Dominion Publishing Company, for their aid in the printing of the Cavalcade, we are very grateful.

And again we say, "Thanks" to all of you.

A POST SCRIPT

This annual contains a small portion of the many plays which have been performed upon this stage. As this will be the last of the many plays performed here, we hope it has been worthy of its big audience.

We extend to you, our audience, our sincere appreciation for making our play a hit, for without an audience a dramatic production lacks purpose.

We hope that you have enjoyed, and will continue to enjoy our CAV-ALCADE, even as we have enjoyed taking part in it.

The play is done; the curtain drops.

Slow falling to the prompter's bell:

A moment yet the actor stops,

And looks around, to say farewell.

It is an irksome work and task:

And, when he's laughed and said his say,

He shows, as he removes the mask,

A face that's anything but gay.

THACKERAY - The End of the Play.
